

Variable Terrain

Folding Leg Stage & Riser

Features

The SICO® Variable Terrain Folding Leg Stage and Riser offers valuable flexibility in one easy to use system. It can be set up as a performance stage or tiered risers for seated riser, choral or instrumental performances. You'll get a wide range of height options, and stage units can be locked together either at the same height or in tiered configurations.

Engineered for strength, stability, indoor and outdoor use, the Folding Leg Stage has a proven performance history. Its one-piece, rugged steel unitized deck frame ensures reliable results and a long service life across a variety of configurations.
